

CHAPTER TWELVE, Footnotes, Page One.

- 1- O. R., Series I, XXXVI, part ii., 207; Warner, Generals in Gray, p.
- 2- Ray, Sketch of 6th North Carolina Regiment, p. 31; William Gaston Lewis to his wife, May 11, 1864, William Gaston Lewis Papers.
- 3- William H. C. Whiting to Samuel McD. Tate (Telegram), May 15, 1864, O. R., Series I, XXXVI, part ii., 1009; Pierre G. T. Beauregard to Braxton Bragg (2 Telegrams, 8.30 and 9.45 a. m.), May 16, 1864, O. R., Series I, XXXVI, part ii., 196.
- 4- Ibid., 1026, William H. C. Whiting to Pierre G. T. Beauregard (Telegram), May 19, 1864; James S. Walker to William H. C. Whiting, May 18, 1864, William H. C. Whiting Military Papers.
- 5- O. R., Series I, XXXVI, part ii., 199-202; John K. Walker to Garrison Walker, May 20, 1864, John K. Walker Letters; Wright, "The Capture of Plymouth." Battery No. 5 is located on the southeast side of Petersburg in the original Petersburg Defensive Line which followed the course of Harrison's Creek. From a personal study of the ground by the author, December 21-22, 1963.
- 6- John K. Walker to Garrison Walker, May 20, 1864, John K. Walker Letters.
- 7- Ibid.
- 8- Zebulon B. Vance to Peter Mallett, May 20, 1864; Peter Mallett to Zebulon B. Vance and George Little, June 18, 1864; Peter Mallett to Zebulon B. Vance, June 22, 1864, Z. B. Vance Papers. Latta had been conscripted into the 6th Regiment on March 31, 1864.
- 9- Ibid., Peter Mallett to Zebulon B. Vance and George Little, June 18, 1864.
- 10- Ibid., Peter Mallett to Zebulon B. Vance, June 22, 1864.
- 11- Ibid., Jesse E. Barden to Zebulon B. Vance, June 9, 1864; The Greensborough Patriot, Greensborough, N. C., April 28, 1864.
- 12- Robert E. Lee to Braxton Bragg (Telegram, 6 a.m.), May 24, 1864, O. R., Series I, LI, part ii., 957.
- 13- Ibid., Pierre G. T. Beauregard to Braxton Bragg (Telegram), May 24, 1864.
Ibid., XXXVI, part i., 1073-1074.
- 14- ~~Ray, Sketch of 6th North Carolina Regiment, p. 31; John K. Walker to Garrison Walker, June 4, 1864, John K. Walker Letters.~~
- 15- Ray, Sketch of 6th North Carolina Regiment, p. 31; William Gaston Lewis to his wife, May 29, 1864, William Gaston Lewis Papers. Lewis was forced to close his letter because he had a regiment on picket duty "which I must visit . . ." Also see Records of Neill W. Ray, 6th North Carolina State Troops, May 30, 1864, War Department Collection, Confederate Records Group 109.